ABOUT THE STATE.

Arthur E. James of North Ferrisburg has been chosen vice president of the dairy school class at the Massachusetts Agricultural College, Amherst, Mass.

The incorporators of the bank are W. V. Phelps, A. W. Woodworth, J. B. Kimball, J. O. Kimball, and O. D. Samson, all of Enosburg Falls.

According to a Woodford correspondent, a woman in that place happened to look out of her window at 2 o'clock in the morning recently and saw in the cloudless sky something that looked like a canoe, emblazoned with gold. Other members of the family were summoned and also witnessed the strange spectacle which soon vanished.

GOLDEN WEDDING AT LUDLOW.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Bagge Celebrate Anniversary Today.

Ludlow, Jan. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Bagge celebrated their golden wedding anniversary today at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bagge went to live in Chicopee, Mass., immediately after their marriage, where Mr. Bagge was a market gardener. They made their home there until twenty years ago, when they came here to care for Mrs. Bagge's parents, who were in feeble health. Mr. Bagge has carried on market gardening on a small scale here. He is eighty-five years old, and is in fairly good health. His wife is fourteen years younger and is very active. They have one daughter, Mrs. Fannie L. Blinn, who makes her home with them.

To the Ministers of Vermont.

We are mailing to all the preachers of the state a copy of Congressman Littlefield's speeches against the re-establishment of the Beer Canteen in the army and beg for your careful reading and use among your people.

Littlefield practically disposes of the arguments for repeal at this time and has never been answered. Indeed, no definite attempt has been made to answer his specific statements and arguments. His speech shows that the Anti-Canteen Law has not been given a fair trial and has never been given fair treatment by the War Department; that the recreation buildings at the post exchanges are not near complete, and yet, in spite of all this, the reports of the Surgeon General and of the Judge Advocate General show a better condition of affairs to now exist throughout the establishment. G. W. Morrow, Supt. Vt. Anti-Saloon League.

Sickening, Shivering Fits

of Ague and Malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At the Red Cross and Parlor Drug Stores. Price, 50 cents. Guaranteed."

Percy's Business.

"Old man Rocks has started his son Percy in business."
"Was he forced to?"
"Yes. He couldn't induce anybody to pay him a salary."

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unhappily About It. Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BAN ON THE NUMBER 13.

"Hoodoo" Stricken From Oregon Railroad's Train Schedule.

Because of the number of fatal accidents to trains bearing the unlucky No. 13 orders have been issued on the mountain division of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company which strikes that number from the train sheet, says a special dispatch from Portland, Ore., to the St. Louis Republic. The tragic death of Conductor Charles F. Brown of Kamela in November was the climax.

The last train order signed by Conductor Brown on that fatal trip was order No. 13, which he received at Blingham Springs and which in the usual jovial manner he at first refused to sign for, telling the dispatcher to change the number. After a few joking words over the wires with the dispatcher Conductor Brown took the order and in delivering a copy of it to Engineer Peter Theisen said in fun: "That's a bad one, Pete. Look at the number and then look out."

It was the last order Brown received. It being a "meet order" on train No. 1 at Menchem.

THE WHIPPING POST.

If the whipping post is revived there will be some men mean enough to demand the ducking stool.—Washington Star.

For our part we are heartily with the large section of the press which has for some time advocated the revival of the whipping post for wife beaters.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Turned Down.

"Pardon me," said the masher, "but you look like a young lady I know."
"Pardon me," interrupted Miss Bright, "but you look like a man I don't know."

Best Food For the Money.

High prices are not always the sign of good quality, neither does a low price necessarily indicate inferiority. The value of a poultry food is determined entirely by the results obtained from its use. W. J. McWilliams, Prattsville, N. Y., expresses his ideas on the subject as follows: "I have sold 'Page's Perfect Poultry Food' in my poultry plant and find it one of the best foods for the money on the market."
